What Makes Our School Speciat?
Getting our children ready for productive lives after high school is a top priority. We do this through rigorous instruction, solid relationship with parents, and showing our students and families that college is well within their reach.
Ways we engage parents include: Curriculum $\mathcal{N}$ (igfts on topics such as math, and getting ready for college; Family Field trips; and classroom and school-wide ne wsle teters. We engage parents who can't come to schoolevents. EVERV Winthrop teacher is committed to working with parents as parents in their child's learning.
We received a $$ 350,000$ grant to support after-school programs, including tutoring, home work help, and child care. We offer after-schoolenrichment including, martial arts,dance, and art. This year students in grades 4 and 5 can take free musical instrument lessons.

What Kinds of Parent Support and Resources Does Our School Provide?
The Winthrop School is committed to the partnersfip between parents and teachers.Some ways we work with parents are:

- Regular Family Curriculum Nights (topics such math, reading-dinner and child care provided)
- Classroom and school-wide ne wsletters "Winthrop Words"
- Wintfrop parents' we bsite
- Take-fome math games, take-home vide os of lessons
- Active, committed School Parents' Council
- Full-time Family and Community Engagement Coordinator
- Weekend Family Field Trips (ex. Wheelock Family Theater, apple-picking)

How are We Preparing Our Students for Educational Success?
The Winthrop School's goal is to get students ready for college or other education after high school. We are building a "college-bound culture" where students see pennants of the college that their teachers attended, read through college catalogues, talk regularly with fraternity members, and spend a day at Boston College (5th graders).

In order for our students to be successful, we offer rigorous instruction for all students. Teachers pursue professional development, as offered through Boston $\mathcal{P}$ blic Schools, the in-house math and literacy coach we have, or take courses in localcolleges. Teachers meet weekly with other teachers of their grade level to address specific instructional issues.

This year we will purchase more than $10,000 of instructional technology, which classroom teackers will be able to use with their students.

In addition to building our students' ac ademic skills, we help them cope with problems they may have. We have a part-time counselor from $\operatorname{Dimock} S$ treet $\mathcal{H e}$ alth Center and a full-time "coach" from Sports 4 Kids, an organization which helps students become more able to resolve conflicts through playtime at recess. Third, fourth, and fifth grade students can participate in after-school programs separately created for boys and girls to helpeach deal with becoming healthy young adults.

Finally, we offer every child the opportunity to develop in the arts both during schoolhours and after school. We have music, art, and dance teachers during the school day. In the after-school program, children may study $\mathcal{A f r i c a n}$ dance, and visual art. Other after-school programs include forensic investigation ("CS I-Winthrop"), Zoo School, and martial arts.
